Events

Chief Jones and Officer Regis took part in a “Coffee With a Cop” event which was hosted by Ancora Italian Restaurant. This was an opportunity to sit and talk with many community members. We also attempted to back to school self defense workshop but had a limited response of interested students.

Officers Smolinsky and Regis assisted with the Music on Main concert event directing traffic and providing a positive police presence. The event was a great success.

Personnel

PSSA Grace Gendron has fully settled into her new position managing grants, catching up on crime reporting, and overseeing a variety of other projects.

Officer McCloud is currently in his fourth week of the Criminal Justice Academy, this is an 18-week program.

Three of our four new solar powered speed control signs are up and operational. They will offer an added reminder to obey the posted speed limit and keep track of traffic counts and speeds.

Training

Officer Smolinsky attending a training to become an ALICE instructor. ALICE is a threat preparedness training empowering workplaces, schools and individuals to respond to a violent critical incident with confidence.
