Bridgton Police Department Monthly Report January 2022

Personnel

This month we welcomed our tenth officer on board. Officer Forest Wilson is currently in training to become part time certified, after which he will go through 360 hours of Field Training. We hope to send him to the police academy in August.

For training this month, BPD had its first movie night. We watched the HBO documentary "Crisis Cops," which showcases a Texas agency with a full-time mental health unit. Officers were able to see valuable aspects of Crisis Intervention Training at work.

Chief Jones attended his first meeting of the New England Chiefs of Police Association board of directors.

Other

We are continuing to review and update our policy manual. We are approximately two thirds through updating the entire book. This will ensure that our policies meet all Academy and Bureau of Labor requirements while preparing us to apply for Maine Law Enforcement Accreditation.
