Events

Officers continued to work with the community responding to and investigating the use and sale of illegal drugs. We are currently equipped with NARCAN which we can administer as a lifesaving effort for those who are dying from an opioid drug overdose.

Officer Chaine instructed all Town Staff on situational awareness through the ALICE program. He is a certified instructor and has made himself available to instruct various groups and organizations in the community.

Officers assisted in another successful day of voting at the polls. The public turn out and community mindedness was certainly encouraging.

Personnel

Chief Jones attended the annual New England Chief's conference. He is currently the 2nd vice President and will serve as President in 2024.

Sergeants Reese and Muise along with PSAA Grace Pelletier attended a one-day leadership training hosted in Brunswick.

Officer Regis bid the department farewell as he received an offer to work as a Park Ranger in the National Park located in Vermont. Matt will be missed and will remain a lifelong member of the BPD family.
