Personnel

We were pleased to welcome aboard reserve Officer Jacob Gormely. He had previously worked for the Maine Warden's Service and has now begun the 12-week Field Training Program.

Admin Ofc. Gendron attended training for and has now been certified as a Crime Analyst. This certification will help further the goals of the Bridgton PD as we attempt to utilize data and leverage technology to help deter crime and streamline our efforts.

Officers McCloud and George attended training on best practices for sexual assault investigations.

Chief Jones attended the annual IACP conference where he took part in multiple training and networking opportunities.

Chief Jones was also invited to speak to students at the Greater Portland Christian School.

Events

Admin Ofc Gendron and Ofc. McCloud took part in the annual Halloween Trick or Treating event by handing out candy and toys at the Police Department.

October is Domestic Violence awareness month and as such we displayed purple lights and wore purple ribbon pins on our uniforms. We are pleased to work closely with our partners at Through These Doors to support with victims of domestic violence.

In the wake of the mass shooting in Lewiston, Bridgton PD assisted with personnel and information sharing resources. Officer Chainé responded on the evening of the shooting and assisted with keeping a perimeter and responded to calls. Ofc. Hammond (at the Police Academy) volunteered to assist staffing the tip line call center.
