Bridgton Police Department Monthly Report January 2024

Personnel

Officer Lee embarked on the beginning of his 18-week course of study at the Criminal Justice Academy.

Sgt. Chaine has begun to settle into his new role. He has begun meeting with each officer to discuss their training and professional development plans.

The department had a successful month of increased traffic enforcement. This was in part due to the funding we received through the Bureau of Highway Safety for saturated patrol details. In all, 172 cars were stopped, and 35 traffic summonses were issued.

We also observed an increase in criminal activity and successful investigations which led to multiple search warrants, 35 adult arrests, and 3 juvenile arrests. In all we responded to 565 calls for service this month.
