Events

Officers assisted with another hugely successful winter carnival event.

As a result of a six-month investigation, Bridgton officers in cooperation with the Cumberland County Sheriff's Office Tactical Teams, executed a high-risk search warrant and arrest warrant at 129 Beaver Creek Farm Rd. As a result, on suspect was taken into custody safely and charged with a variety of crimes including stalking and terrorizing. He was also yellowed flagged (deemed a prohibited person). As a result of the search warrant, multiple dangerous weapons including loaded and chambered firearms were seized. This was certainly a complicated investigation and operation.

Personnel

Officer Lee continues to progress through the Criminal Justice Academy, he is almost halfway through with graduation planned for mid-May.

All staff took part in the first of a three-phase training for active assailant response in schools. This training was offered to all Cumberland County Agencies.
