Events

BPD was happy to see the return of warm weather and the Music on Main Series. We were able to support the event with the presence of four dedicated officers and two patrol units. As always, the event was a great community success.

Personnel

Officer Ryan McCloud successfully completed the detectives process and has now been assigned as the PDs first full-time investigator.

Officer Johnson completed a weeklong training to become a field training officer.

Administrative Officer Gendron Completed two trainings. One in advanced crime analysis and the other in domestic violence crimes. The domestic violence related training was covered by a grant we operate under in connection with Through These Doors.

Detective McCloud competed a weeklong training in illegal drug investigations.
